Li Zongzhuang

Summary

This week I did do many works. In the first days of this week, I joined the Hu Wanqi' s team. Though I known little, I would learn knowledges. And I still helped Lu Junhua to make the paper about predictive visualization model. What I did is to arrange the references. The program of Net-ease I also joined in. We made two meetings about this program this week.

To do List

Next week, I wil do these works better .I' ll have a comunication with Xia Jing about the summarize and read more papers.
